

SoGikII: Law, Communication Technologies and Culture Conference

Tuesday 9 June 2009 9-5

[DRAFT] Program

9.00am REGISTRATION

9:30 – 10:30 David Vaile (Executive Director, Cyberspace Law and Policy Centre, UNSW)
'What is this thing called, love?' Inspecting the despicable, assessing the unacceptable and other packet-sniffing enigmas

Kieran Tranter (Senior Lecturer, School of Law, Griffith University)
Leviathans of Dune: Frank Herbert's Thanatology of Sovereignty

10:30 – 10:45 MORNING TEA

10:45- 11:45 Jon Marshall
Paradoxes and Property

Lyria Bennett Moses (Senior Lecturer, Faculty of Law, UNSW)
How GikII are we? Legal scholars at the technological frontier

Pia Waugh (former president, Linux Australia, now advisor to Senator Kate Lundy)
A geek in the heart of the political machine

11:45 – 12:45 Lilian Edwards (Professor of Internet Law, Sheffield University)
Death and the Web

Fernando Barrio (Senior Lecturer in Business Law, London Metropolitan University)
Naked across borders: Inter jurisdictional issues of raunchy blogging

12:45- 1:45 LUNCH

1:45 – 2:45 Ian Brown (Senior Research Fellow, Oxford Internet Institute, University of Oxford)
Mrs Lindqvist is watching your LOLcats

Graham Greenleaf (Professor, Faculty of Law, UNSW)

2:45 – 3:45 Andres Guadamuz (Lecturer in E-Commerce Law and Co-Director, AHRC/SCRIPT, University of Edinburgh)

Will Uther (Senior Lecturer, School of Computer Science and Engineering, UNSW)
Patent Law in the Federation: Replicators and Piracy

3:45 – 4:00 AFTERNOON TEA

4:00 – 5:00 Stilgherrian (Journalist and online policy commentator, Crikey.com.au)
The Parable of the Topless Gnome: Cultural imperialism and censorship in a globalised world

Alana Maurushat (Faculty of Law and Cyberspace Law and Policy Centre, UNSW)
Botnets, Botox and Battleships: Combating the Commercial Malware Industry

5.00pm DRINKS, MINGLING and CHIT-CHAT

7.30pm DINNER – Barzura Ristorante, 62 Carr St Coogee